

I Once Was Ignorant of Grace

E m C D7/C G/B E m D G/B G Am7 C D sus4 D G/B

1. I once was ig - no - rant of grace though liv - ing in its light; The
 2. The Spir - it then re - vealed to me my heart was ful - ly tinged with
 3. My heart was changed - I then ad - mired the One I caused such loss for
 4. My soul must o - ver - flow in song each time I call to mind that

C Am7 D G/B A7/E D G/B G G/B Am7/C Am Em

things of earth held my em - brace and cap - tured all my sight. Though strife and bound - less en - mi - ty that soon would be a - venged. But all that Just - ice had re - quired was fin - ished on the cross. The to my Je - sus I be - long when judg - ment I should find. O

B m Em G Am/C D G G/B G G/B C D sus4 D G/B

I was blind and dead in sin in love You called to me and then I saw a God of grace so eag - er to for - give He Sav - ior then be - came to me my joy and all - in - all and grant that might al - ways weep be - cause of mer - cy shown to

C Am G Em7 D G/B G G/B Am7/C Am Em

gave my heart new life with - in, new eyes Your grace to see.
 let His Son die in my place that in Him I might live.
 now in - to e - ter - ni - ty will nev - er let me fall.
 one whose trea - son runs so deep yet now is called Your own.

Words by David L. Ward. Tune: KINGSFOLD (English Traditional), Arr. R. Vaughan Williams
 Based on the prayer "The Great Discovery" from The Valley of Vision.
 © 2009 ReformedPraise.org, administered by Reformed Praise.
 See the Reformed Praise copyright agreement for usage information.